The Hawaii Yacht Club received some time ago the offer of a new cup to be raced for annually, the donor being Captain Charles F. Wood of the Sachem's Head Yacht Club of Long Island. A few weeks ago the cup itself arrived, being one of the hand-somest trophics ever seen in Honolulu. There's an interesting little story behind the gift, which connects it even more closely with Honoiulu. Here is the way that Captain Wood, who left for the Coast this morning, tells it:

for the Coast this morning, tells it:

"One morning last summer—September 10, to be exact—I was sitting on the lansi of my cottage at the Seaside Hotel, reading a Honolulu paper. An item that caught my eye stated that John J. Pheips had arrived the day before in the schooner yacht Brunhilde, on a trip round the world." This made me sit up and take notice, for John J. Pheips is commodore of the Sachem's Head Yacht Club, to which I belong at home. I read it over again, and then at home. I read it over again, and ther saw that the column was headed Twenty-Five Years Ago Today. I then remebered hearing Mr. Pheips tell of a trip around the world that he and some other Yale students took in a yacht just after they graduated, and it occurred to me that a trophy to be called after the club of which Mr. Phelps is now commodore, and to which I, too, belong, would be most appropriate for Homeleys and propriets for Homeleys and the state of appropriate for Honolulu yachting. So I tendered the gift, ordered the cup, and will be back in time to see it

FOR GAME IN AUSTRALIA

American Fighters Returning on Zealandia Tell of McIntosh's Proposed Carnival.

The fight game is falling off in Aus-The fight game is falling off in Australia just now, and the pickings are not so soft for American fighters as they were a while back, according to reports brought here yesterday by four fistle lights homeward bound on the liner Zealandia. Jim Barry, "Porky" Flyne, Jim Clabby and an Australian depter named Jessus, were the ring

Flynn, Jim Clabby and an Australian fighter named Jessup were the ring notables who visited Honolulu. They were full of gossip of the game, but were looking forward to campaigning in the States once more, Australian ground being worked to death.

Hugh McIntosh will stage a big lightweight tournament in Australia when he opens the game up again, according to the visitors. He has written to his American representative that he will make some handsome offers to the best 133-pound boxers in this country and will do his utmost to get them to make the trip to the Antipodes.

to fight the trip to the Antipodes.

"Meintosh himself has got all kinds of coin, but he isn't letting a whole lot of it get away just now," said Barry "The heavyweights have been worked pretty hard, and he thinks that if he gets a few good lightweights it if he gets a few good lightweights it will be a change for the fans and he can pick up a pile of money. He wants to make this tournament the biggest lightweight event ever held in the world."

World Magnificent Pavilion.

McIntosh is also making improvements in his Stadium and expects to have it ready in a short time. It will cost in the neighborhood of $30,000 to put a roof over it, but when it is finput a roof over it, but when it is fin-ished he expects it to be the greatest fighting arena in the world. He is also building two large gymnasiums for the boxers to train it, so that the lighters will not be forced to go out of the city to train. In the gymnasium will be Turkish baths for the use of the fight-ers.

McIntosh, in letters to his American meintosh, in letters to his American representative. Tom Andrews of Mil-waukee, has been putting in some big boosts for Hughie Mehegan, the Australian lightweight who is going to campaign in the States, but Jim Clabby, who fought him, doesn't consider him a world beater.

Barry had five fights while in the Antipodes, two with Langford case with ipodes, two with Langford, one with Sam McVey, one with Porky Flynn and one with an Australian heavyweight, Lankford got a decision at the end of twenty rounds in the first meeting, and the second was stopped in the four-teenth by the police, who thought Barry vas getting too much the worst of it Barry himself says that there was no need for this action, and that what made his condition look bad was a nasty cut across the lip which bled profusely. McVey also got a decision. Ryan Dees Honors.

None of the four fighters have very definite plans for the immediate future. Harry wants to go South, and Tom Mc-Carey has promised to do what he can Carey has promised to do what he can toward securing a match. Jim doesn't like the game in San Francisco, where he is usually panned by some of the papers, not being overpopular by the Golden Gate. While in Honblulu the quartet was shown round by Paddy Ryan, with whom Barry was in cable correspondence over a fight here for the Fourth. Barry was passed on to Ryan by the latter's old pal, Tom Sharkey. Jim was sorry that there was nothing doing here for him, but said that he only half expected being able to pick up a match in Honolulu, Langford's Wife Going Over, Mrs, Sam Langford, wife of Sam Langford, the colored pug, is a pas-senger on the Makura, which docked this mornig on the outward voyage to New Zealand. Sam expects to be in the Antipodes for some time longer, and finds the game there to his liking.
